

THE BLOCK 2019 WINNING KITCHEN SHOWCASES NEW KITCHEN SURFACE

The Block 2019: A stunning kitchen that wowed the judges and took out first prize was also the public debut of a brand new kitchen surface.

Empira White, by Caesarstone, took a decade to perfect and was used on all benchtops and splashbacks. It made a major contribution to the kitchen's signature style, with judge Neale Whitaker stating this was one of the best kitchens ever delivered on The Block.

Deb and Andy's kitchen featured a magnificent three-storey high vaulted ceiling and a heart-stopping mix of Shaker-style matte white cabinetry, brass fixtures and natural timber.

Caesarstone's Empira White quartz surface is the latest interpretation of authentic white marble and combines the purest of white bases with an elegant tracery of fine black veins and underlying shadowy alluvial layers. Together this complexity of detail adds depth and movement to the polished quartz surface, creating an organic interplay between light and dark.

And while Deb and Andy's kitchen has been designed for the heavy traffic of a busy family it also has the requisite amount of glamour and style to ensure it is the perfect space for serious entertaining. Caesarstone quartz surfaces fulfil both briefs perfectly – their authentic interpretations of elegant marbles have the added benefits of being scratch, heat, chip and stain resistance.

Caesarstone's Empira White quartz surface is just one of 48 quartz surfaces available nationally. Go to www.caesarstone.com.au for more details.

Caesarstone is committed to the highest safety and environmental standards and carries the ISO 14001 international standard for environmental management and performance.
